Reviews: 9.

A rich and compelling memoir that reveals a surprising personal history behind an apparently conventional life. the lie that settles has been reviewed in a number of media outlets. THESE ARE EXTRACTS FROM SOME OF THEM: Marion's story is engrossing – because of both its universality and its uniqueness. Peter Farrell is not the first person to discover he is illegitimate but few have been brave enough to provide such an illuminating account of the events that led to the search for a parent. This rich and compelling memoir reveals a surprising personal history behind an apparently conventional life.4/5(1). The Lie That Settles: A Memoir - Kindle edition by Peter Farrell.
