A Touch of Love Foundation is a non-profit organisation who helps poor children and adults with gaining an education, job training, healthcare, and decent food and housing. Our work started in before the foundation was incorporated. Vicki and Wayne Galler moved to India and started programs for poor villagers outside the city of Pune. A Touch of Love Works is a bunch of people who see a great need and we can't act as if we don't see these individuals. If we can, we will help connect them with resources to help them get short-term and long-term assistance to change their quality of life. The goal is to eradicate homelessness in America.

A friend referred me to A Touch of Love, a a small mom-and-pop shop. There are many florists in SJ but since I live in LA, I wanted a place that I could trust to deliver on short notice. I called the shop and consulted with the owner, Angelo. I told him my budget and the color scheme/5(12).
