As to the title, such originates from the line without me, without me, everyday is a misery; with me, with me, no night is too long. And yet ironically what proved to be too long, was the film itself, with its Canadian broadcast brutally cut down to an 85 minute version. In No Night Is Too Long, Barbara Vine has written a tour de force, rich in characters and setting, a remarkable novel by an internationally celebrated master of her craft.
