His song "The Blacker the Berry" was inspired by this classic Harlem Renaissance novel, and when you know Lamar's lyrics and read Thurman's text, you realize how these two works of art are reinforcing each other, and the effect is truly amazing.4/5.

Wallace Thurman (-) died young. Like his novel's heroine, Emma Lou Morgan, he was very dark-skinned and did some growing up in Idaho and California. Also a polymath genius, Thurman published his best known work, THE BLACKER THE BERRY, in It is a fine story, but landed with a thud both among earliest readers and critics/5(10). The Blacker the Berry is a novel by Wallace Thurman that came out in Thurman was a member of the Harlem Renaissance, which was a prolific artistic movement of Black creative people from that. About The Blacker the Berry The groundbreaking Harlem Renaissance novel about prejudice within the black community Emma Lou Morgans skin is black. So black that its a source of shame to her not only among the largely white community of her hometown of Boise, Idaho, but also among her lighter-skinned family and friends. A source of controversy upon its publication, The Blacker the Berry was the first novel to openly address color prejudice among black Americans. Author Wallace Thurman, an active member of the Harlem Renaissance, vividly recaptures the era's mood and hecfran-modelismo.coms:
